October 27, 2007

Dear Opera Attendees:

The High School night of the Houston Grand Opera presentation of Daughter of the Regiment at the Wortham Center in Houston will be on November 1, 2007. The uniform for the night will be nice concert clothes. You should bring a sack to avoid the very high prices at the Wortham.

The schedule for the night will be as follows:

3:45 p.m. - Meet in choir room for prompt departure from Brazoswood HS

7:00 p.m. - Opera begins. There is no late seating! You will be denied entrance and will have to wait in the lobby until intermission.

11:30 p.m – Return to Brazoswood.

We hope that you will return inspired with great sounds and masterfully performed Donizetti opera.
