

Dear Students,

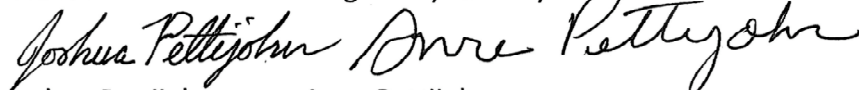

We are excited to offer you the opportunity to study voice in private lessons this year! With round one of All-State just around the corner, there is no time to lose. Voice instruction will be offered during your choir period as a 30 minute lesson once a week. The limited number of time slots will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis, so if you would like to participate in this program, it is important that you respond in a timely manner.

Investing in your voice is a wise decision. Studying voice can reap many benefits, including greater performance in the choral program, successful competition in the All-State Choir program, earning scholarship money for college, and personal enjoyment and fulfillment. It is important to pursue the things you love to do, so if you are serious about singing, you should strongly consider enrolling in private voice lessons.

The cost to participate in this program is $15 per week. All checks should be made payable to the instructor, either Joshua Pettijohn or Anne Pettijohn. Each month should be paid in full at the first lesson or before. It is the student's responsibility to stay current on their payments. After the first week, no lessons will be given until the month's payment has been received, and students are responsible for lessons missed for non-payment. If you should need to miss a lesson for any reason, please give advanced notice to the instructor so that you can be credited for the lesson or schedule a make-up lesson. In case of illness, please contact the choir office as soon as possible to notify the instructor.

If you would like to participate in private lessons, please return the following form along with your first check (3 lessons - $45.00) to reserve your place in the voice studios. Once your place is reserved, we will schedule you for your lesson time and notify you by mail. Lessons will begin the week of September 10th, but all students should immediately get copies of the All-State pieces from the Choir office and begin learning their music as soon as possible.

We look forward to working with you this year!
