Brazoswood High School Choir presents High School Musical. The smash hit movie musical comes to life on stage! At East High the final bell rings signaling the beginning of summer vacation. Sharpay and Ryan Evans plan to spend the summer at their family's country club, Lava Springs, But Sharpay's summer plans also include pursuing Troy, whom she has arranged to be hired at the club. However, Troy convinces the club's manager, Mr. Fulton into hiring Gabriella and the Wildcats. Sharpay is enraged upon learning that Gabriella is working as one of the lifeguards, so she orders Fulton to give them difficult tasks so they'd be opt to quit. Fulton attempts to intimidate the group, but Troy rebuilds their confidence. Troy continues to worry about funding for college. Sharpay arranges for Troy to be promoted, hoping that this will convince him to sing with her. Troy agrees to sing with his friends in the show, not knowing that Sharpay is vying for his attention. A visit from a local college basketball team causes a rift between Troy and Chad when Troy chooses The Redhawks instead of his friends', and Troy begins to distance himself. Ryan realizes he does not mean much to Sharpay anymore, as she is ready to cast her brother aside for the opportunity to sing with Troy. Taylor and Gabriella invite Ryan to the baseball game, and Chad offers him Troy's position. Owing to a "promise" from Troy, he and Sharpay practice their song for the Talent Show. When Sharpay discovers that Ryan and the Wildcats are putting together their own performance in the show, she orders Mr. Fulton to ban all junior staff members from performing. Gabriella confronts Sharpay, and makes it clear that she will not play Sharpay's game. She quits her job at Lava Springs. Troy overhears the exchange, and tries to persuade Gabriella to change her mind. Gabriella expresses her loss of trust with Troy. Troy returns to work the next day to find that his friends refuse to talk to him, causing Troy to question his own motivations. He begins to reconcile with Chad and his other friends. Then Troy confronts Sharpay. The Wildcats and Chad forgive Troy for his absence. Troy sings the song, requested by Sharpay, alone — until Gabriella surprisingly joins him onstage. In the end, Sharpay proudly presents her brother, Ryan, with the award for the talent show. After the talent show, Troy and Gabriella finally share a kiss.
